My lovely short-skirt teacher!

"Today," is done, four years—You have only ground one or two facets of your great human diamond, leaving marvelous possibilities, untold wealth hidden within you.

"Tomorrow," begins unnumbered years—YOU begin by reading, studying, improving, and preparing yourself to seize the coveted opportunity when it comes. This will give you power, self-reliance, and not only self-respect, but the respect of your fellows and the public.

DEDICATION

In recognition of the invaluable assistance rendered to us during our high school career, we, the class of '33, dedicate this YEAR BOOK to

MRS. MARY LEHMAN DUNLAP

and

MR. CHARLES H. WISE

transcribed by Alice A. Nelson

You are soon to leave your first Alma Mater. Opportunities for advancement in your life are many and varied. You must accept, unflinching and fearlessly, the challenges the world offers if you are to emerge victorious. All this means increased responsibilities, but success and happiness come only to those who are willing to pay the price. Your task is before you. Do not shirk!

CHARLES H. WISE.

Autobiography of the Class of '33

WHEN, in September, 1929, one hundred twenty-seven of us entered T. E. H. S. as "Freshmen," there were few who found the manifold tasks too difficult although they included English, Algebra, Civics, Science, Latin, and Business Methods.

As the year advanced we paused in the midst of earnest activity for the Christmas and Hallowe'en parties which taught us to enjoy more fully the comradeship of our fellow students. Then it seemed but a brief interval before the ordeal of "mid-years" and "finals" had been successfully met and the one hundred thirteen of us left assumed a new title, "Sophomores."

The knowledge and experience we had already acquired enabled us to make further gains through class as well as individual initiative.

We chose as our officers: James Heagy, President; Florence Dovey, Secretary; Della Thompson, Treasurer. The excellent leadership they afforded welded us even more closely together.

Individual ability was evidenced by Sophomore membership in the Dramatic Club and Eastfrin Staff, while the power to think was augmented by new branches of endeavor: Geometry, French, Typing and Stenography. Some members of the class were rewarded for their hard work by a trip to the Philadelphia Zoological Gardens while, of course, too, the holiday seasons each brought appropriate revelry. Ultimately, however, came the sad necessity, "exams," which this time reduced our ranks to eighty-seven.

The third year brought with it the realization that we were beginning the last half of our academic career. Consequently we attacked each new problem with a vim.

We chose Theodore Lamborn, President; James Heagy, Vice-President; Florence Dovey, Secretary, and Della Thompson, Treasurer.

As "Juniors" life proved even more interesting. We were introduced to Physics, Bookkeeping, and Algebra. There were more extra-curricular activities, additional parties, and a trip to Brandywine. But the greatest minute was the one that brought us Class Rings as an emblem of proficiency in school work, and to serve in after life as a souvenir of T. E.

More examinations, then all too soon we became "highly esteemed 'Seniors'." At once, far greater problems than any we had previously faced, presented themselves. To graduate we must acquire vast knowledge; to fulfill our other desires money was a requisite. These needs were equally difficult to gratify. Furthermore, time to participate in a still greater variety of extra-curricular activities had to be found.

In deference to the executive ability he had previously demonstrated, Theodore Lamborn was again elected to lead us. Wilbur Haarde was made his assistant, while Florence Dovey kept the records and Lucetta Moyer handled our mercenary affairs.

Keenly do we appreciate the strenuous efforts made by the taxpayers in our communities as well as by our families to maintain, in spite of financial stress, our usual high level of educational facilities. Due to their sacrifices both work and recreation progressed with comparative ease. More freedom was ours but there was more to do. Chemistry and Advanced Business Training required careful study. Suppers, bakes, candy selling, dances, parties, and moving picture benefits had to be carried on in an effort to create greatly needed funds. "The Odd Job Man," the annual play, was produced in splendid fashion. It, indeed, proved a decided financial help to us.

The final days saw a Gymnasium Exhibition, a Musicale, Class Day, and—"exams." At last, those of us who had proved our merit received an inspiring, an entertaining, a profitable reward—a glorious three-day sojourn in our nation's capital, Washington.

When we returned it was to Commencement—the culmination of hopes, the abatement of fears: Success.

Class

of

1933

John C. Alleva

Football (2), (3), Captain (4); Field Day (3).

"We have met the enemy and they are ours."

Cap is our fun-loving football captain. His accomplishments on the gridiron rival those in his class activities. It is, however, his love for jokes that surmounts all else.

That artificial rose of John's has caused a great deal of laughter, and perhaps a little chagrin among the girls.

Louisa Jane Anderson

Basketball Captain (4); French Club (4); Secretary of Dramatic Club (4); Orchestra (4); Chorus (4).

"A pleasing countenance is no slight advantage."

Chicky joined us just this year and was immediately welcomed into our ranks. Her friendly nature made her popular while her athletic ability made her a good pal.

Nothing we could say could make a good pal Jane really is!

Betty B.

Senior Supper Committee (4); Senior Committee (4).

"Doing good is the only religion."

During our Sophomore year, Betty, a gay little red head, came from Kansas City and became one of us. Since then her friendly participation in everything that goes on has won her an enviable place in all our hearts.

Betty's interests lean toward the domestic arts and she can nearly always be found actively engaged in them.

Edwin P. Blair, Jr.

Football (2), (3); Industrial Arts Club (2), (3); Band (2), (3); Track (2).

"A quiet chap who does his work and does not talk about it."

Ed came to us in his Sophomore year from Missouri, but you don't have to "show" things to him—the fact is, Ed can prove them to you with little difficulty.

His excellent vocabulary brought many of us down to shameful defeat in Commercial Law arguments. Why not enter the Bar, Ed? We'll recommend you to prospective clients.

C. Arvel Blottenberger

Class Vice-President (3); A. A. Vice-President (3); A. A. President (4); Basketball (1), (2), (3), Co-Captain (4); Varsity Letter Club (3), (4); Industrial Arts Club (3), (4); Field Day (3); Perfect Attendance (1); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Track (2), (3); Chorus (3), (4); Monitor (4).

"I could a tale unfold."

Blake proved his executive capabilities as President of the A. A. His athletic prowess made him conspicuous on the basketball court. But it has been his ability to be a "good fellow" that has been evident throughout these four years.

Eleanor J. Brown

Chairman of Senior Bake Committee (4); Cafeteria (4).

"The laughter of girls is and ever was among the delightful sounds of the earth."

If you have a bad case of the blues, hunt up Brownie and you won't have 'em long, for her laughter is contagious. Brownie's sympathy and interest in human nature will greatly aid her as a nurse.

Raymond A. Brown

Dramatic Club (2), (3); Treasurer (4); French Club (4); Industrial Arts Club (2), (3); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); Perfect Attendance (3); Chorus (3).

"For what I will, I will and there's the end."

Brownie's grin is characteristic of the chap whom nothing ever worries and for whom nothing seems too difficult.

Snapper is always looking for a good time, especially if the "fairer sex" is connected.

His career as a carpenter will, we hope, be very successful.

E. Nelson Cannon

Football (2), (3); Basketball (3); Varsity Letter Club (3); Annual Play Cast (4); Typing Awards (2); Stenographic Awards (3); Bake Committee (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Perfect Attendance (2), (3).

"Make the most of the day."

Nelson is in life as truly an "Odd Job Man" as he was in the annual play. To him kindness and care of others is part of each day's work.

Thomas James Capriola

Football (1), (4); Baseball Manager (4); Varsity Letter Club (4); Industrial Arts Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Monitor (4).

"A friend to everyone."

For four years Tom has been aiding us with his practical mind. Always his "special racer" proudly displays the Garnet and Gray.

Tom is usually found boosting candy sales and literally pushing our train to Washington.

Charles B. Cleaver, Jr.

Industrial Arts Club (3); Annual Play Cast (4); Monitor (4); Senior Dance Committee (4).

"Whatever he did, he did with so much ease."

Charlie's beautiful golden locks are the only things about him that bespeak the raving poet he turned out to be.

He must be welcomed home with much pride at the end of each month. What a record-breaker, that report card!

D. Leslie Collier

Track (3), (4); Field Day (3); Industrial Arts Club (3); Senior Bake (4).

"And still he dreams."

Les came to us in his Junior year from Atlantic City High School. He is a quiet unassuming young man, whose chief interest seems to be that Ford of his which demands so much overhauling.

Leslie, we understand, has quite a "way" with the ladies.

Annie Lydia Comins

Dramatic Club (4); Typing Awards (2), (3); Stenographic Awards (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (4); Field Day (1), (2); Chorus (2), (3), (4).

"The most agreeable of companions."

Annie's diligence is only one of her merits for her optimism has been a blessing to '33. She is a most dependable worker—the motto "Be prepared" is already hers.

Howard Leslie Cornish

President Dramatic Club (4); Annual Play Cast (4); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); Christmas Play Cast (4); Eastfrin Staff (4); Chorus (3), (4); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4).

"And best of all along the way, Friendship and Mirth."

It's the smile that helps to endear Les to his classmates. Perhaps the "sax" helps, too, for our Romeo surely can blow the "blue notes." No wonder he is always in demand!

Essie Mae Crosby

Girls' Track (2), (3); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Orchestra (2), (3), (4); Chorus (1), (3), (4).

"Whose music is the gladness of the world."

When we mention typing we always think of Essie. However, it is not only in her studies but in athletics as well that she has proven outstanding. Her jolly disposition and vivacity have stood her in good stead and helped us through many "mental depressions."

Some day we expect Essie to be welcomed at T. E. for a piano recital.

Robert H. Davidson

Football (4); Dramatic Club (4); Christmas Play Cast (4); Senior Benefit Committee (4); Perfect Attendance (3); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (4).

"My mind to me an empire is."

Chief among Bob's many skills is his talent for expressing himself. He is, indeed, adept in the use of both the spoken and the written word.

Although he seldom takes anything but his "Lizzie" and "Les filles" too seriously, Bob always warrants the impression of efficiency which his presence creates.

Anna May Stevenson De La Rue

A. A. Recording Secretary (4); French Club (3); President (4); Dramatic Club (3); Annual Play Cast (4); Eastfrin Staff (2); Perfect Attendance (2), (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4).

"The blessing of the earth is toil."

Anna May with her outstanding scholastic ability has been a real help when facts were scarce and demands for them numerous. Whether it was in class meeting or in a social group, her clear reasoning often brought light.

And can Dellie camp?—Just ask her if she likes spiders.

Alfred Dill

Industrial Arts Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Stage Manager for Christmas Play (2), (4); Senior Bake Committee (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Perfect Attendance (2); Track (3).

"Worry was never worthwhile."

Dilly, the "Filibusterer," is always ready with a question that will prevent the teacher's asking him one.

Although Otto takes kidding good-naturedly, he always has an answering sally.

was model for "Chesterfield" cigarette ad!

Eleanor May Dixon

French Club (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Field Day (2).
"Gentle to hear, kindly to judge."

Peggy's accomplishments are the just rewards of diligence and thoroughness. Eleanor's heart glows with friendship and her gay camaraderie has been one of '33's blessings. Quiet manners coupled with kindness will win her many friends in her college life.

Florence L. Dovey

Class Secretary (1), (2), (3), (4); Corresponding Secretary of A. A. (4); Dramatic Club (4); Annual Play Cast (4); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Senior Bake Committee (4); Chorus (3), (4).
*"A tall and stately lass is she
With heart chock full of jollity."*

Florence is one of our most popular Seniors. In her every activity she has proved her ability and leadership. Although you wouldn't think it, "Bright-Eyes" is really studious.

Edwin F. Erwin

Basketball (4); Industrial Arts Club (4).
"We live today; who cares for tomorrow?"

Eddie came to us this year and soon adjusted himself to our jolly group. A fascinating "Eastern sho'" accent together with a great ability to talk keep him surrounded by an admiring audience.

Mischief, however, seems to be his main forte for the girls tell us that he is an accomplished tease.

John Fedora

Typing Award (2); Stenographic Award (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4).
"Calmness is a great advantage."

John, we believe, is destined to be a future golf champion; at least he can always be found discussing approaches and puts.

His quiet and mannerly ways around the classroom fail to bespeak the liveliness and joviality that mark him in a crowd.

Ruby Eleanore Fippard

Stenographic Award (4); Senior Benefit Committee (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Senior Bake Committee (4).
"We love thy sweet simplicity."

Ruby's quiet inexplicable charm radiates. Consequently her social achievements reach, indeed, high. Sally possesses, too, a rare ability to adjust herself to any circumstance.

We don't know whether it's the blond hair or the blue eyes, but the opposite sex surely does hover about her.

George M. Ford, Jr.

Industrial Arts Club (2), (3), (4); Field Day (1); Perfect Attendance (3).
"Hang sorrow! Care'll kill a cat."

Fordy is about the most carefree, the most easy-going member of our class. At present we are in a quandary as to who is causing all that extra mileage on his speedometer.

George plans to be a mechanic and a good one he should make, unless he forgets to go to work in the mornings.

Esther E. Frey

Dramatic Club (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Chorus (2); Student Librarian (4); Cafeteria (4).

"Small service is true service."

Tubby is the Senior housekeeper. She is always engaged in her Practical Arts work, although she gladly finds time to brighten one's way. Esther just seems to bounce from one place to another; she is always on the go. This is due to her willingness and ability to make our Senior projects a success.

Bernice Alta Gise

A. A. Treasurer (4); Assistant Treasurer (3); Typing Awards (4); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Perfect Attendance (1), (2).

"System is the root of efficiency."

Gisey's commercial experience plus her ability should carry her far up the business ladder. Although activities, that center around the A. A. books in Room 10, keep her constantly engrossed in T. E.'s financial worries, Bernie arranges to find time for her favorite pastime, deciding what she does not like to eat.

Dorothy Elma Glisson

Cafeteria (4); Student Librarian (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Senior Bake Committee (4).

"With quiet smile she wends her way."

Elma is our real brunette. Her quiet manners, winning ways have not been unrewarded for everyone is her friend.

Sis's efficiency as a home maker asserts itself in the gracious way in which she receives her guests at class teas. However, her great ambition is to be a head nurse and to fulfill it she hopes to enter Germantown Hospital in the fall.

Robert F. Goeble

Football (2), (3), (4); Varsity Letter Club (2), (3), (4); Industrial Arts Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Annual Play Cast (4); Track (1), (2), (3); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Monitor (4); Noon Program Committee (4); Field Day (3).

"Rare compound of frolic and fun, to relish a joke, and rejoice at a pun."

Bob is a leader in everything from football to acting. His determination to play "the game" to the end and to play fairly have always been in evidence. Consequently he has won the respect of all who know him.

Frederick Wilbur Haarde

Class Vice-President (4); Basketball (2), (3), (4); French Club (4); Varsity Letter Club (4); Dramatic Club (4); Hallowe'en Party Committee (4); Field Day (3); Perfect Attendance (2); Chorus (3), (4); Orchestra (4); Track (2), (3), (4).

"Knowledge is power."

Will is probably best known to us for his musical performances though his accomplishments in class and in athletics are far from meager.

Someday we may have the opportunity of hearing our Will lead his own orchestra. He wants to.

John P. Hadfield

Industrial Arts Club (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Track (3).

"To live long, it is necessary to live slowly."

Jack's weakness for Model T Fords is a constant source of amusement to the rest of us. Perhaps we shall some day find him in a beautiful new one.

Jack accepts either work or play when it presents itself. He enjoys most shop activities, and whenever it is possible, he engages in them.

Jack prefers to have his good times with a crowd of just boys. Perhaps he's a little bashful? Perhaps!

Robert Gordon Hanley

Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4); Baseball (1), (3), (4); French Club (4); Varsity Letter Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Christmas Play Cast (2); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); Chorus (3), (4); Eastfrin Staff (2); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); History Award (3).

"Look out—he puts up a good argument."

The American Bar Association will one day welcome a barrister whose fame as an orator has travelled far beyond T. E.

Gordy will get there. Where? Anywhere that requires unstinted effort to reach.

McLeard Haynie

Football (1), (2), (3), (4); Track (3); Baseball (1), (3); Varsity Letter Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Industrial Arts Club (3), (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3).

"First of all in the fray."

Mick is one who can always be depended upon for a stellar performance on the gridiron. Although he is one of the speediest on a field, in his studies—well—he just takes his time.

James F. Heagy

Class President (2); Chorus (3), (4); Band (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Business Manager (4); Student Council (2); Track (4); Senior Supper (4); Senior Bake (4).

"What more than mirth would mortals have?"

Our talented violinist possesses a rare sense of humor and can generally be found entertaining some appreciative group. We predict an increase in "illness" among the fair sex when "Rubinoff" is practicing medicine in the town.

Florence Mae Heine

Dramatic Club (4); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (4); Chorus (4).

"As well out of the world as out of style."

Mae is a dainty little miss who knows what the well-dressed girl should wear and wears it. However, all her time can not be spent in the pursuit of fashion for she finds ample opportunity to do her work well.

James Edward Hensell

Basketball Manager (4); Typing Awards (3); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Eastfrin Staff (3); Field Day Events (3).

"Sincere in all his doings."

Ed is a quiet amiable fellow who is more likely to be seen than heard. However, though reticent, he is quite capable of making a pertinent remark when the occasion arises.

Success in business surely awaits one with his capabilities and manners.

H. Lawrence Hines

Class Vice-President (2); Baseball Manager (3); French Club Vice-President (4); Varsity Letter Club (3); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Christmas Play Cast (2); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Chorus (3); Eastfrin Staff (4); Perfect Attendance (2).

"So much can one man do—

That does both act and know."

In the classroom Larry is the soul of seriousness—play is allowed only in its proper time. But after class? Well, his eyes bespeak mischief!

Henry Lee Holmes

Football (2), (3), (4); Baseball (1), (3), (4); Varsity Letter Club (4); Industrial Arts Club (4).

"Be silent and safe; silence never betrays you."

Lee's athletic prowess has helped win many of T. E.'s victories but it has been courtesy and geniality that have added most to his popularity.

Lee's activities in the Industrial Arts Club will stand him in good stead in his chosen career.

As he quaintly expresses it—his hobby is "clowning."

Burton W. Houston

French Club (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4).

"The one who loves and laughs must sure do well."

Perhaps it is because Bud is a musician that he is temperamental. Many moods are his, but a rather serious one best characterizes him. He is an unfailing patron of our Senior dances, when his Sax is not blending its tones with those made by the other Richmond Melody Boys.

Maurice Stanley Houston

French (4); Dramatic Club (4); Senior Dance Committee (4); Chorus (1), (3), (4); Track (1), (2), (3); Band (1), (2), (3), (4).

"He danced, I say, right well."

Maurice is the social light of our class. It is only when dances, parties, and picnics are in the wind that he is in his glory.

However, Maurice has ambitions which surpass mere merriment; indeed he aspires to be a banker.

Harry Jaffe

Football (3), (4); French Club (4); Field Day (2), (3); Track (3).

"He has brains and uses them."

Jaffe's jokes and antics are an important source of class humor. However, he has not spent all his time in joviality for he has seriously realized the necessity of learning. Never any exams has Harry failed!

Sarah Jaffe

Dramatic Club (3), (4); Typing Awards (3); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Eastfrin Staff (4); Chorus (4); Annual Play Ticket Committee (4).

"How doth the little busy bee improve each shining hour?"

Sarah is the one girl who doesn't always want the proverbial last word. In fact, so congenial is she, that it is seldom she expresses a dissenting word regardless of what the suggestion may be. Even to lessons, Sarah agreed; each was methodically finished.

John Dudley Johnson

Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4); Co-Captain (4); Varsity Letter Club (3), (4); Industrial Arts Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Eastfrin Staff (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Perfect Attendance (3); Monitor (4).

"To friendship every burden's light."

Dud has starred constantly on the basketball court. Yet his athletic activities have never interfered with his being a good student.

Perseverance will tend to make Dud's career successful.

Theodore C. Lamborn, Jr.

Class President (3), (4); Football Manager (3); Varsity Letter Club (3); Hallowe'en Play Cast (2); Typing Awards (4); Stenographic Awards (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Band (1), (2), (3), (4).

"There is no substitute for sincere earnestness."

"Theo," our Class President is a favorite with all of us. His sane practicality has kept us from tumbling into many pitfalls.

Indeed, it has been the courage and perseverance of our leader that have kept us fighting and winning when conditions seemed most black.

Beatrice Lewis

Basketball (2), (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Track (2), (3); Captain (2), (3); Cafeteria (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Leaders' Club (2).

"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit."

Bea's sense of responsibility has made her one of the most conscientious of our class members. Yet often she unbends from her quiet dignity to join in a fit of merriment.

Surely her determination warrants success in all her undertakings.

Florence Kyle Lewis

Basketball Manager (4); Dramatic Club (4); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Eastfrin Staff (4); Cheer Leader (4).

"Let gentleness my strong enforcement be."

"Flossy" can best be introduced to you as one always busy, ever finding pleasure in work.

She is envied by many of her sex for possessing the flaming head of curly hair which has won for her another nickname, "Torchy."

Warren Esler Mathews

Class Vice-President (2); Industrial Arts Club (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Senior Motto Committee Chairman (4).

"There is no policy like politeness."

Have we a tall gallant Senior? Yes, sir! Warren Mathews, he is. As a chemist he is outstanding but his ambitions seem to lie along the line of Practical Arts. Confidentially, we think he ought to be a makeup specialist for Hallowe'en performers.

Arthur P. G. McGinnes, Jr.

Football Manager (4); Basketball (3), (4); A. A. Nominating Committee (4); French Club (4); Varsity Letter Club (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Industrial Arts Club (1), (2); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); Senior Bake Committee (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4).

"Accomplishment is its own reward."

You can't miss Aut—he's the highest point on the Senior horizon. His Virginia drawl plus that "lovable awkwardness" just make him irresistible.

Thomas McPhillips

Track (2), (3); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Stenographic Award (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Varsity Letter (3), (4); Chorus (4).

"I'm no wordy man."

Horses are Tom's hobby, although the track offers a favorite pastime, running, to our so often silent chum.

A great love for animals has aroused in Tom the desire to be a veterinarian. In this work his optimism as well as his patience and patients will surely prove an asset.

Charles N. A. Meoli

Football (1), (2), (4); Baseball (1), (3), (4); Industrial Arts Club (1), (2), (3); Stage Manager (4); Field Day (1), (2); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Perfect Attendance (1).

"A comrade blithe and full of glee."

Charlie is the skinny fellow who is always trying to do bigger and better things.

Unfortunately, for some of us, Fats revels in boyish pranks.

Lucetta A. Moyer

Class Treasurer (4); Dramatic Club (4); Typing Awards (2), (3); Stenographic Awards (2), (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (4); Annual Play Ticket Committee (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Librarian (4); Cheer Leader (4).

"She is resolved to be happy."

Detty has proved herself very capable in both her scholastic work and class projects. Furthermore, her clever wit is a constant source of amusement.

Avery Lawrence Okie

Basketball (2), (3); Tennis (1), (2), (3), (4); French Club (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Hallowe'en Play Cast (3); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (4).

"Her manners? They are charming!"

Bey is one of our most dignified Seniors. An excellent knowledge gained in class together with talent for artistic work will certainly lead Avery to a future of worthwhile accomplishments.

William Henry Glenn Perry

Basketball (2), (3), (4); French Club (4); Hallowe'en Play Cast (2), (3); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (3), (4); Monitor (4); Chorus (4).

"High erected thoughts seated in the heart of courtesy."

Bill's work is always done seriously and thoroughly. In fact, he's even willing to assume more than his share of responsibilities. His pensive moods have brought many excellent suggestions for our betterment.

Dorothy Wright Phillips

Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Annual Play Cast (4); Christmas Play Cast (3), (4); Stenographic Awards (3); Eastfrin Staff (4); Cheer Leader (4); Play Ticket Committee (2), (3).

"She has a sweet attractive kind of grace."

Dot's demure charm and lovable modesty have won for her many friends. Although she seems serious, don't be led astray, for when it's time for fun and orchestras Dot's right there!

Margaret Elizabeth Pollock

Dramatic Club (3); Typing Award (3); Stenographic Awards (3), (4); Senior Motto Committee (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Perfect Attendance (3), (4); Candy Committee (4).

"Silence sweeter is than speech."

Margaret may sometimes be reserved or even a wee bit shy, but always she is studious and energetic.

So engrossed is she in achievement that it is seldom she has time to join our frivolities.

Frances E. Redmond

Chorus (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Senior Bake Committee (4).

"She comes up smiling."

Betty is so generous that she will gladly share everything she possesses with her pals. Fond of nature, her chief hobby is walking.

Her pleasing eloquence in public speaking classes warrant her a future recognition in this field.

Eleanor Stevens Roberts

Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (4); Christmas Play Cast (3); Chorus (3), (4); Eastfrin Staff (3), Editor-in-Chief (4).

"Good sense and good humor never separate."

Never quiet, always giggling or telling a story that will make someone else giggle, Nome makes her jolly way about T. E.

If in an argument (and she often is), Kiki's good humor coupled with her good sense almost always manages to earn her the victory.

Incidentally, we often wonder who her manicurist is!

Robert Roedder

Christmas Play Cast (2); Orchestra (2), (3), (4); French Club (4).

*"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays,
and confident tomorrows."*

Bob is an inquisitive fellow whose pet hobbies are guns and model aeroplanes. His fondness for corresponding with unknown friends in foreign countries has brought many mysterious letters and strange postage stamps to Room 5. His interest in research ought to carry him far in any scientific field.

Amolia Marie Schwerdtfeger

Stenographic Awards (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Perfect Attendance (2), (3); Chorus (4); Cafeteria (2), (3), (4); Senior Bake Committee (4).

"She is well paid who is well satisfied."

Molly is a modest miss who blushes when she receives praise even though it be entirely merited. Consequently there are many fine elements in our classmate which we have never mentioned to her before: "You are a dependable worker, a worthwhile friend, and all in all—a good scout."

Martha Elizabeth Siner

Basketball (1), (2), (3); Tennis (1), (2), (3), (4); French Club (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Christmas Play Cast (2); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (3), (4); Cheerleading (1), (2), (3), Captain (4); Chorus (3), (4).

"Nothing is so contagious as enthusiasm."

Marcia's vivacious spirit, dainty ways, pleasing manners, justly arouse in her crowd of admirers an unflinching loyalty. A boundless energy and a mind alert enable Skeeter to do many things well.

Marian U. Smith

French Club (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Candy Committee Chairman (4); Senior Bake Committee (4); Editor-in-Chief of the YEAR BOOK (4); Chorus (3), (4); Librarian (4).

"What she attempted she accomplished."

Marian's dignity together with her ability to produce excellent work helps to make her what we might call a "model Senior." With graciousness and poise she can ably command any situation.

William Albert Smith

Industrial Arts (3), (4); Chorus (3); Senior Supper Committee (4); Stage Hand (3), (4).

*"Not a saint, nor yet very bad,
But, well—he's such a nice little lad."*

Bill is the poet of our class. Give him an idea and he will do the rest.

His chief ambition is to eliminate the curl in his hair, but so far he has not been successful. If you seek diversion ask him for a "good one."

Virginia Keebler Supplee

Basketball (3); Dramatic Club (4); Christmas Play Cast (3), (4); Typing Awards (2), (3); Stenographic Awards (2), (3), (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Chorus (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2); Perfect Attendance (1); Eastfrin Staff (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4).

"In books, in work, in healthful play—a friend."

GINNA is a real hustler. When to her a task is assigned it is known that it will be completed both satisfactorily and quickly.

Della E. Thompson

Class Treasurer (1), (2), (3); French Club (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Annual Play Cast (4); Christmas Play Cast (3); Eastfrin Staff (3), (4); Ways and Means Committee (4); Cheer Leader (3), (4); Librarian (4); Student Council (1).

"It is nice to be natural when one is naturally nice."

Pat is most versatile; her talents range from acting to diligently applying herself to studies.

If you see a young lady, smiling yet serious, you'll know it's Pat.

Peter Joseph Valase

Football (1), (2); Industrial Arts Club (4); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Perfect Attendance (3).

"Content dwells with him."

Pete always finds the little things that every one else overlooks. He further shows his cleverness around Play time for he is an able stage hand.

Pete vies for the class record for lateness. However, he does usually succeed in reaching school before noon.

Sara Louise Whitworth

Corresponding Secretary A. A. (4); French Club (4); Chorus (4); Student Librarian (4).

"Thy quiet graciousness delights us."

Sara is one of but few in our class who has that "stately dignity" by which a Senior is supposed to be recognized. With a staid demeanor that bespeaks composure and assurance she undertakes and completes each new task regardless of its difficulty.

Richard Riversdale Wichert

Football (1), (2), (3); Basketball (2), (3), (4); Baseball (1), (2), (3); Field Day (1), (2), (3); Varsity Letter Club (4); Industrial Arts Club (2), (3).

"Much study is a weariness to the flesh."

Wick returned to his home town after spending a year in Chicago. He joined our class in the Junior year.

Full of tricks, jokes and comical sayings, always happy and carefree, ever ready to tease but in a kindly way, that's our picture of Dick.

Doris Louise Williams

Chorus (3), (4); Senior Supper Committee (4); Senior Bake Committee (4).

"A winsome lass with a friendly smile."

With a lively "line" and plenty of pep Dot gathers about her a crowd that is eager to hear the latest news picked up in the halls.

She's a brave little lass who will stand before any one to defend her rights, yet if she prefers, she can be both demure and retiring. Dot's is a personality that is the more captivating because of its diversity of mood.

Nellie M. Williams

French Club (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Christmas Play Cast (4); Flower Committee (4); Perfect Attendance (2); Chorus (3), (4); Senior Supper Committee (4).

"She has learned the luxury of doing good."

Nellie is the song bird of the class. She loves to dream and dream some more—of radio towers and of bright lights. Good luck, Nan. We'll be listenin'!

Chester A. Wood

Band (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Orchestra (4).

"Swift to hear and slow to speak."

Chet is one who would be an asset to any group. When he starts to work, he permits only something really important to interrupt his progress. Yet, he finds time for pleasure and heartily participates in it.

Chet and his "Chevy" are always on hand to chase about town on "important errands."

Hazel Loretta Wood

French Club (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Perfect Attendance (1), (2), (3).

"The mildest manner and the gentlest heart."

Zellie is a quiet unassuming girl who gets a lot done but never makes a fuss about it. She is a steady worker at any task and accepts jobs without question.

Hazel's pleasant smile and patient way should help her greatly to gain success as a teacher.

Robert J. Woolston

Track (2), (3), (4); Varsity Letter Club (2), (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Typing Awards (2), (4); Stenographic Awards (2), (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Eastfrin Staff (2); Field Day Events (2), (3); Perfect Attendance (2), (3); Chorus (3).

"Nothing is too high for the daring of mortals."

Bob has great promise of becoming a successful business man. He is a steadfast worker, one upon whom we are depending to make his mark in the world.

Howard William Yohn

Industrial Arts Club (3), (4); Typing Awards (3), (4); Stenographic Award (3), (4); YEAR BOOK Staff (4); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Chorus (3), (4); Perfect Attendance (1), (2).

"Action is eloquence."

Howard is an unusual Senior for he is seldom heard from unless he is directly addressed. However, whatever words he does utter are treasured by all of us as expressions of keen wisdom.

School Calendar

1932 - 1933

- September 28—T. E. really opened! 170 Freshmen welcomed!
- September 29—460 pupils tied down for 200 days.

- December 30—Sore feet as the result of the Senior Dance.
- January 6—Girls’ basketball team dropped its opener to St. Katharine’s.
- February 13-17—Worse news so far; “Mid-Year Exams.” Poor Freshmen! and poorer Seniors!!
- February 22—What, no vacation? “No,” but a very stirring speech by Congressman William D. Upshaw.
- February 24—Girls declared “Chester County Basketball Champs.”
- March 1—Seniors turned to cooking and theirs was the best of suppers.
- March 3 and 10—“Ouch! my toe.” Afternoon dances for Washington Fund.
- March 17—Juniors gave a St. Patrick’s Day social.
- March 30-31—Faculty had to go to school while “WE” had the afternoons off.
- April 6-7—School play. “The Odd Job Man.”
- April 10—Odd jobs were all done over again; this time for the Senior Washington Fund.
- April 11—Coach Mateer’s boys knocked the “horsehide” out of Phoenixville’s lot.
- April 13-14—Another break for us. No school!! Easter vacation.
- April 20—Did you see the “birdie?” Seniors did.
- April 21—Lucky Senior Commercial went to Philadelphia to visit “big business men.”
- April 25—Chester County Orchestra Concert at West Chester.
- April 27—Gym exhibition (they must produce double jointed pupils at T. E.).
- May 8, 9, 10, 11—Benefit movie. ’33’s engine fired again.
- May 18—An evening of music.
- May 24-29—Senior Exams. A happy (?) ending.
- May 30—Last school holiday—good news and bad.
- May 31-June 2—Seniors “Did” Washington.
- June 11—Baccalaureate Sermon.
- June 12—Never to be forgotten moments for 1933—Senior’s last chapel.
- June 12-16—Under classman exams.
- June 12—Faculty-Senior Party.
- June 14—Class Day.
- June 15—Commencement. Finis.
